Wireless or Ethernet for a multiple user wifi router?

2019/10/24

So just getting straight to the point I live in a flat where one wifi router is being used by about 6 other people in different rooms, will I get better latency/ping stability by connecting via ethernet cat5e etc. OR will the sheer number of users still be too big of a factor for ping drops? On a good day I can get 20ms but usually it wont last long and I experience ridiculous ping spikes from 20-140ish ms. So basically I dont mind getting from 20 to 40 as long as it stays there. Will ethernet help with that?Cheers.
